MUST BE SIGNED

I hereby certify that all wares offered for sale by me and the members of my organization at the A’Fair in Hernando are handmade and that I do not offer any wares for sale that were bought by me and brought here for resale. I understand that members of my organization cannot give away any food or drink of any kind and that all members must remain inside my booth and cannot distribute any materials or goods outside of the booth assigned to us. I also understand that I cannot share my booth space with any other individual or group unless they have also been included on this application and have signed this application and have been approved by the members of the A’Fair in Hernando Committee. I also certify that these rules have been given to the members of my group. I understand that if I am found to be in violation of this rule, I may be asked to leave the A’Fair in Hernando and that no refunds will be given.
